2025

Sanes Cup Handball Tournament

The 43rd edition of the Sanes Cup handball tournament will take place from July 11th to 15th, 2025. It will bring together hundreds of players from various countries in different age categories, from the youngest to the senior division, creating a true summer celebration of handball.

In this new edition, all teams will enjoy various activities and complementary events to ensure that the players experience truly unforgettable days.

The Sanes Cup coincides with the start of the summer festivities, the Festa Major, which creates an exceptional atmosphere around the tournament.

Training Camps

Spain is an ideal destination for practicing handball, thanks to its top-level facilities and its tradition in the sport.

Our specialized programs for teams include training sessions designed to improve performance, with high-quality courts, modern equipment, and adapted spaces. Additionally, they will have the opportunity to play friendly matches against local teams.

Beyond sports, participants also have the chance to enjoy the region with organized activities and excursions. These experiences allow them to discover the natural and cultural richness of the area, offering a perfect balance between training and leisure time.

Training Camps

Sample Training Camp:

- 5 days and 4 nights in a 3 or 4-star hotel with full board
